

J.D. Salinger uses many literary devices in this novel. Three of them include: symbolism, irony and motifs. Symbols are objects, characters, in the rye, by J. D. Salinger. . There are countless examples of writers in literature who have written such wonderful prose. In my list of literature in the first place - "In Search of Lost Time" by Marcel Proust. In reading these books, you will inevitably meet and recognize many characters, such as in the case of Albertine, Rudolf and Madame de Renal. These are the symbols. Irony is difficult to describe and define. This is laughter ironic over what is perceived as suffering, as madness, as death. Irony often causes laughter.
