2014 Summer Program Director Since the Summer 2014 JamList is about to expire I figured I would put up a position for the next Summer JamList. This is a position as a Summer Program Director. In this position, you will have the responsibilities of helping program alumni participate in a wonderful trip to San Juan del Sur. This position also requires the coordinator to help keep alumni up to date on the summer programs and where they can send pictures. Expect the coordinator to be working by 10:30 on the East coast so they can get up to see the sunrise. Must be willing to continue coordinating the Summer 2014 program for alumni of the past four years. Willingness to help alumni make their dream trip come true. Must be a native English speaker. Must have a love for music and or travel. Must be able to commit a minimum of 4 hours per day for the entire summer. Must be willing to participate in a comprehensive pre-trip meeting with both JamList and alumni. Must be willing to monitor social media to help coordinate with alumni that are far away. Must be able to manage alumni emails, requests and answer alumni questions. Must be willing to keep alumni up to date on the status of summer programs. Must have a computer with internet access to help coordinate and keep alumni updated. Must be willing to spend 3 hours in the office doing online work and 1 hour per day at the beach. Must be willing to sign a Contract. Must have the skills and drive to work with alumni that are very demanding. Must be able to spend the hours of the day on your feet keeping the events going. Must be willing to come into the office every day after working all summer to answer alumni questions and put together contract/policy documents. Should have a love of music
