True! Do you love shirt? Buy now before losing forever. Peanuts Halloween Feelin' Spooky Shirt. Limited edition, available in our store in a few days. "I don't know," I replied. - And in which store did you like it? - At Zara. "Okay," I sighed, "let's go, I'll treat you to dinner." We had lunch at the On the Edge restaurant. I never wanted to go there, and still do not want to. A notice hung on the door: "Not recommended for visiting with children. For adults only." And not in vain. The restaurant was always full of drunks, and the music was so loud that it was impossible to talk. We sat at a corner table and ate oysters. "Do you always want oysters?"

To determine the adequacy of epidural analgesia for postoperative pain relief after thoracotomy, 26 dogs were randomly assigned to either a control or to an epidural group. All dogs received postoperative multimodal analgesia following thoracotomy and were similar for risk factors associated with postsurgical pain. Dogs in the epidural group received an epidural catheter for 3 days following thoracotomy and received epidural morphine and bupivacaine for postoperative pain relief. Dogs in the control group received no epidural analgesia. In the epidural group, 4 dogs received single injections of morphine for pain. Morphine was continued every 6 hours for the first 3 days, then every 8 hours for a minimum of 3 days. Only dogs that received epidural analgesia had an increase in the numeric rating scale (NRS) score within the first 72 hours after thoracotomy. During the c6a93da74d
