Don't forget to mention the specific dates of study in the UK and why you want to study in the UK. The dates of award will be found on your Chevening award certificate. Try to be as specific as possible for both the award date and the completion date. How to write a short essay about yourself? Here is the answer. You might be a long and quiet type, or maybe one that is a bit of a chatterbox. Whatever the case, it is important to write that you are yourself. You can start by listing some adjectives you like or dislike and why. What do you know about the future? Where do you think your career should go? Who are some of the people you admire? Who or what inspires you the most? Where do you see yourself in 5 years time? Your secret dream job? etc. In this way, you can convey the attributes that you like and dislike. This will make it easier for the reader to know more about you. The last and the most important thing that you need to do is to answer the question asked. It should be written in a more conversational tone, whereby you are more focused on the answers. This will be the one that will satisfy your peers and the panel members. I strongly believe that you also need to be able to add additional information (in the optional part) that can enrich the discussion. Most of my clients that I have reviewed their essays can do this. Its all about the language and the diversity of concepts that youre making. Anyways, let the discussion begin. I hope this answers your question. I know I am talking too long but I wanted to make sure that youre fully aware of what I have mentioned. Best of luck!
